Subject: UPDATED: Temporary Suspension of “Live” Requirements for Division of Occupational and Professional Licensing (DOPL) Continuing Education (CE)

To Whom it may concern:

With the increasing public awareness of COVID-19, DOPL team members have received a number of questions regarding continuing education requirements for licensed professionals. Specifically, individuals are concerned about “live” elements of CE requirements, such as a mandate that all or a portion of CE hours be achieved by personal attendance at a seminar.

In order to support Utah’s efforts to curb the spread of COVID-19 through social distancing, I approve the temporary waiver of “live” CE requirements for those with DOPL license expiration dates between now and the end of the COVID-19 Pandemic. In other words, online CE may be accrued instead of live CE for the duration of the Pandemic for purposes of license renewal consideration. This waiver is permissive. Those who desire live CE are free to participate in it, though DOPL encourages licensees and providers of CE to adhere to social distancing recommendations found at coronavirus.utah.gov or cdc.gov/coronavirus.

Hopefully this action, among the thousands undertaken recently by public and private entities across the state will decrease the prevalence of community COVID-19 spread.

Thank you for your cooperation, as well as your dedicated service to the citizens of Utah.

Sincerely,

Mark Steinagel
Director
